INVESTIGATION:

On 07 NOV 11, the reporting was assigned, summarily to the follow up investigation of the above captioned incident.

This report should be read in conjunction with any and all other related reports including but not limited to the following associated report.

The reporting reviewed this case in detail on 07 NOV 11, by reviewing the Original Case Incident Report (O.C.I.R.) that was initiated on 06NOV 11.

The reporting attempted to contact the complainant [REDACTED] at the recorded telephone number of [REDACTED] and was unsuccessful. the reporting did leave several message upon the electron answering system for the complainant to contact this Detective in furtherance of this investigation.

On 07 NOV 11, the reporting again called the complainant and was successful. [REDACTED] related that he had left a bar/tavern and was "a bit tipsy" when the reported incident occurred. [REDACTED] stated that he was walking when he was called out to by a person whom he believed to be a police officer. [REDACTED] stated that he recalled a Black Chevrolet (model, color and other identifiers unknown as of this writing) with the numbers "37" in the license plate. [REDACTED] stated that the driver shined a light in his face and demanded to know if he had any identification. [REDACTED] stated that he was ordered to put his hands on the car as the offender changed positions. [REDACTED] stated that a female (with long hair) took his position with the light and that the male searched his pockets and took five one hundred dollar bills and an IPHONE. [REDACTED] demanded his money back and the offender re-entered the vehicle and fled. [REDACTED] believes that the offenders may be of Puerto Rican and or Dominican heritage due to the manner in which they spoke.

The reporting inquired if [REDACTED] could identify the offender(s) and or the vehicle if he were to see them again and [REDACTED] stated that he could.

A CL# 1049827 was requested by Sgt. LOSIK # 991.

The reporting completed electronic searches and learned that there were no Police Observation Devices, (PODs) in the immediate area that may have captured this incident.

Based on the above facts and that there was no additional evidentiary material to submit to ISP (firearm, shell casings, bullets), the reporting requests that this case be considered SUSPENDED UNTIL ANY NEW AND OR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BECOMES MADE AVAILABLE.
